IMPLANT THERAPY FROM BEGINNING TO END: COLLABORATION AND SYNERGY THROUGHOUT THE DENTAL TEAM

4 CE 8:30-12:00 | 1:00-2:00

This presentation will discuss the need for proper treatment planning, communication, and collaboration regarding simple to complex implant cases. This lecture will highlight the need for a team effort in gathering information and executing the planned treatment. Proper final restorative design will be discussed as well as proper maintenance of these cases. New innovations in surgical, prosthetic, and maintenance arenas will be showcased.

FEATURED CO-SPEAKER:

DR. MICHELLE KOSMOWSKI

Michelle received her DMD at UBC. She practiced general dentistry in Calgary, before returning to Western to complete her Masters of Clinical Dentistry in Orthodontics and becoming a Fellow of the Royal College of Dentists of Canada.

Michelle has lived in the Comox Valley for 5 years where she has partnered with Dr Helpard at Shoreline Orthodontics in Courtenay and Campbell River. She has been trained in the NAM technique at NYU Langone and has been providing the procedure for cleft babies living on the North Island since 2018.

FEATURED CO-SPEAKER:

DR. PAUL HELPARD

Paul has lived and worked in private practice on Vancouver Island for over 25 years. He has been generous to his patients and other practitioners during this time. He is the founder and CEO of Corus Orthodontists.

Paul is also a consultant orthodontist on the Cleft Palate and Craniofacial Anomalies Team at B.C. Children's Hospital and is a clinical assistant professor in the Graduate Orthodontic program at the UBC. He is a Diplomate of the American Board of Orthodontics, a Fellow of the Royal College of Dentists of Canada, a former examiner for the RCDC, and is a member of the Edward H. Angle Society.

CLEFT AND CRANIOFACIAL ORTHODONTIC CARE

Nasoalveolar Moulding and Distraction Osteogenesis

2 CE 2:00-4:00

This lecture will provide the audience with a review of complex procedures in Cleft and Craniofacial Orthodontic Care.

The first half of the lecture will focus on the diagnosis of clefting and the care that orthodontists provide to newborns before they have their first surgical repair. The second half of the lecture will focus on a unique surgical technique that helps manage some of the most severe skeletal discrepancies that occur in patients with clefts and other craniofacial anomalies. This lecture will educate all clinic staff on how to support patients and parents during and following treatment. Dr. Paul Helpard and Dr. Michelle Kosmowski will share many cases treated at Shoreline Orthodontics.
